Monday 5 February 2018 10:00 am – 11:30 am	#TQU2# Orientation seminar for new faculty: Starting the Semester Successfully: Helpful Do's and Don'ts for the Spring	Dr. Chris Stryker (Office of VP for Academic Affairs)	English الانجليزية	OFID Room 201 Building C02	As a new semester begins, there is a critical window of time to establish some helpful procedures for your students, some productive dynamics for your class and some transformative approaches for your teaching. This presentation will overview a variety of best practices for starting the semester powerfully and successfully.
Tuesday 6 February 2018 12:30 pm – 2:00 pm	#TQU1# Orientation seminar for new faculty: Why Everyone Should Teach A Class on Multitasking and Mindfulness (and a Complete Lesson Plan for How/What to Teach It)	Dr. Chris Stryker (Office of VP for Academic Affairs)	English الانجليزية	OFID Room 201 Building C02	One look at students on campus will confirm that they are truly addicted to their cell phones. Unfortunately for them, multitasking is more than just a bad habit—it's actually damaging their ability to concentrate, to think critically and even to interact face to face. Every educator should be well aware of the dangers multitasking poses and work to educate students about the right and wrong ways to interact with technology. This presentation will cover a complete, ready-to-teach lesson on multitasking that you can reteach in any academic setting.
