

Training Program: Beginning Writing for Publication – Fall 2014

Purpose of the Program:

This extended program is intended for faculty and staff who are inexperienced in publishing academic papers, but who are committed to doing so over the course of the semester. The basics of publication will be covered, and participants will be provided guidance and support during the process of writing and submitting an academic paper. Participants are expected to attend all 7 sessions of the program

Outcomes of the Program: At the end of the program, participants should be able to:

- Design research projects appropriate for publication.
- Write research reports appropriate for publication.
- Successfully navigate the publication process.

Facilitator: Dr. Nancy Allen

Audience: Faculty members who are new to publishing

Venue: OFID
